Historically, the leadership of our nation has turned to God for strength and guidance. It is in this spiritual tradition that we hold the Governor's Prayer Breakfast. Participants are laypeople representing the leadership of our community. In a busy and troubled world, attendance at this inspiring prayer breakfast demonstrates our dedication to God and our faith in His plan and purpose for each one of us.

Over the years, the National Prayer Breakfast in the nation's capital has proved a continuing influence throughout the world by recognizing publicly the privileges and responsibilities of a nation under God. Because of the impact of the National Breakfast throughout America, many of our cities are making it possible for the leadership on the local level to get together to develop the cause of a spiritual awakening throughout our nation.

In keeping with the foregoing ideals, the Christian Courier newspaper, with the cooperation of other interested community leaders, sponsors this Governor's Prayer Breakfast.

"I hold the precepts of Jesus, as delivered by himself, to be the most pure, benevolent, and sublime which have ever been preached to man."

– Thomas Jefferson

"But all of us – at home, at war, wherever we may be – are within reach of God's love and power. We all can pray. We all should pray. We should ask the fulfillment of God's will. We should ask for courage, wisdom, for the quietness of soul which comes alone to them who place their lives in His hands."

– Harry S Truman

"No greater thing could come to our land today than a revival of the spirit of religion – a revival that would sweep through the homes of the Nation and stir the hearts of men and women of all faiths to a reassertion of their belief in God and their dedication to His will for themselves and for their world. I doubt if there is any problem – social, political or economic – that would not melt away before the fire of such a spiritual awakening."

– Franklin Delano Roosevelt
