OCTOBER IS PASTOR APPRECIATION MONTH!

Each year the Christian Courier Newspaper gives special recognition to Pastors and Christian Workers at a breakfast designed just for them. The event this year will be held once again at the Italian Conference Center, 631 E. Chicago Street (across from the Summerfest grounds) and ample free parking, starting at 9am and ending at 11am.

A great line-up of speakers and program personalities will be on hand. Also many gifts for all who attend. An outstanding TOPICAL BIBLE with new - bold - easy to read type, valued at forty dollars will be given to each one attending. There will also be many pastoral/church related books and items that will be very helpful for your future ministry. Subjects such as the pastor's sermons being summoned into court by local authorities; the bathroom agenda in public stores and schools - how do you handle it; how to avoid lawsuits by saying yes or no to certain groups in using your facilities; the church that refuses to show a cross - cult or not? Everyone knows we are a few steps away from being a non-church organization yet "religious" (for tax exemptions). Where is this coming from? What is happening all over Europe and knocking on your back door. Answer it, or not, and do what?

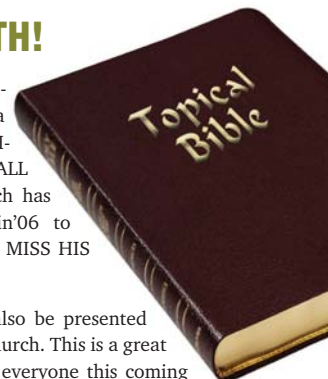

Dr. Kenyn Cureton

Special Speaker will be Dr. Kenyn Cureton, vice president of Church Ministries for Family Research Council out of Washington, D.C. He is a leader of the WATCHMAN ON THE WALL pastor's network which has grown from 1,800 in '06 to 25,000 today. DON'T MISS HIS MESSAGE!

MY HOPE 2017 will also be presented with a DVD for each church. This is a great evangelistic effort for everyone this coming fall. Trinity Broadcasting Network will also be present. Operation Christmas Child will have a challenge for your church with a free shoe box to take with you. Many door prizes including gas cards will be given out at the close with a drawing of those attending. Pastor MICHAEL HARDEN of New Testament Central City Church will give a challenge to all pastors and Christian workers to keep on keeping on for the Glory of God that you have been called to. All of this will take place on Tuesday, October 17th, however you MUST pre-register, and it is ALL FREE - great breakfast - speakers - fellowship and God's Blessings. CALL TODAY at 414-344-7300 (seating is limited) or e-mail us at administration@christiancouriernewspaper.com. You will go home with a big bag of goodies.

Pastor Michael Harden

The Ark Encounter Will be Permanently Lit with Rainbow Lights

Answers in Genesis founder Ken Ham has announced the ministry's Noah's Ark-themed park will now be permanently lit up with rainbow lights as a reminder that God owns the rainbow - not the LGBT community.

On Facebook, Ham shared a photo of The Ark Encounter in Williamstown, Ky. lit up in red, orange, yellow, green, blue, indigo and violet.

"We now have new permanent rainbow lights at the Ark Encounter so all can see that it is God's rainbow and He determines its meaning in Genesis 6," Ham captioned the photo.

He explained that the rainbow is a reminder that "God will never again judge the wickedness of man with a global Flood-next time the world will be judged by fire."

"The Ark is lit permanently at night with a rainbow to remind the world that God owns it and He decreed it's a sign of His covenant with man after the Flood-Christians need to take back the rainbow as we do at the Ark Encounter," Ham said.

"Sadly, people ignore what God intended the rainbow to represent and proudly wave rainbow-colored flags in defiance of God's command and design for marriage," Ham wrote. "Because of this, many Christians shy away from using the rainbow colors.... As Christians, we need to take the rainbow back and teach our young people its true meaning."

"The chasm between what's obviously Christian - what the Bible actually teaches - and what culture teaches has widened," he said. "America used to be very christianized in its worldview as a culture. Now, there's a big separation."

Part of the problem lies with the Church, Ham said, as many pastors and religious leaders "water down" the truth of the gospel and compromise God's word to "fit in" with culture.

He added, "We're on the precipice of catastrophic change in this nation. In fact, I believe it's already happening. Romans 1 talks about the wrath of God being revealed against unrighteousness, that God turns those who reject Him over to their depraved minds. I believe we're seeing Romans 1 play out in our culture right before our eyes."

What Have You Done Lately for Others?

by John Fisco

Hardly a day goes by with the headlines in the news that show fires, wind storms, and floods. With the recent hurricanes in the south it is amazing how many people that have been affected just a little and are willing to give of their time to reach out to as many people as possible. Others are traveling hundreds and hundreds of miles to help out in any way. School kids are packing clothes, food items, general needed things and are trucking them to the necessary areas. Thousands of dollars are being donated every hour to help in that way. Look at J.J. Watt and all that he is doing. Sure he has the recognition to do something big, but the impact it really has on the area and others joining in. Think of it; if just a few more big time athletes that make salaries you'll never dream of would to the same! Wow! When one starts a good thing, it usually multiplies over and over again. However not everyone would earn the privilege of having a freeway named after him/her self.

The point REACHING OUT TO OTHERS - SET OURSELVES ASIDE AND GIVE IN SOME WAY. Needless to say many organizations are going all out to help in the south at this time. Red Cross, Salvation Army and one of the best kept secrets, the Billy Graham Organization Rapid Response Team. You hear a lot about the Red Cross, but our news media is very biased when it comes to Christian Organizations getting their due exposure in the headlines as they rightfully should. Give it some prayerful thought as to your financial donations of the above mentioned. You really only hear about the Red Cross, but the others also have a spiritual impact which is not "news breaking" information. Look ahead to Christmas time which is just around the corner. Operation Christmas Child is about giving a shoe box filled, to a child in a foreign country that really has nothing. Can you find the time this year to pack a box or two? Put it on the TOP of your Christmas list and see how greatly you can be blessed. Words cannot express the gratitude on the receiving end, as your box is all they get - maybe ever got; and cherished for a long time. Most important of all a message of the Gospel of Jesus Christ in their language is also included. Can you put a price tag on that? No! Priceless!!! God bless what you are doing for others.

It is the glory of the true religion that it inculcates and inspires a spirit of benevolence. It is a religion of charity, which none other ever was. Christ went about doing good; he set the example to his disciples, and they abounded in it. ~ Thomas Fuller

A Word From the Heart

by John Duckhorn

A Christian has to live in two worlds. One, of course, is the world of work, trial and sin. We do not always like this world and do not feel very comfortable in it. Not only do we face an inner battle but must face the misunderstandings of the world around us. One moment we feel close to the Lord and at another we feel lust, envy and are dissatisfied with our lot in life. We hate to admit it but most of the things that we count precious are material things. It may be what we possess, such as cars, homes and savings. It may be relationships and even family. Our families are of great value to us. But when we suffer loss of any of them, we naturally, hurt. We might even think that the things we value the most have been taken from us and might well question God's concern for our well being. That reaction often causes us to feel like spiritual failures and we feel guilty.

The other world we must live in, if we are to live like Christians, is the spiritual world. That means I must learn to look at the things that are not seen not just the things I can see. I will be the first to admit that it is easier said than done. But no matter how hard it is, we must learn to value spiritual things or suffer much spiritual anguish.

Spend some time in First Peter. The believers were suffering the loss of goods and life by a hostile government. Peter's letter does not give a false hope of better times. His one goal is to lift their hearts above the pain of loss to the riches they have in Christ. To encourage them in God's program. To focus their attention on things of real value.

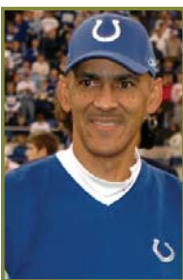

Four times in this letter Peter uses the word precious. That is, of course, things that ought to be of great value to us. In 1:7 Peter says that the trial of our faith is more precious than the gold that perishes. How in the world can the trial of faith be precious? Trials bring us closer to the Lord. They help us focus on the real issues of life. They lift our hearts above this world and help us realize that we are saved so that we can one day be in our Lord's glorious kingdom. Do not see trials as intrusions, but as God's way of drawing close to us.

In 1:19 Peter says that we are saved by the precious blood of Christ. Why ought the blood of Christ be of great value to us? Because we are saved. His blood paid for all our sins and has brought us into an eternal relationship with the Father. No matter what happens here we come to Christ to be healthy or wealthy then you might not find the blood of Christ precious. He has not saved us just to make life prosperous and enjoyable. No one can rob us of the precious blood of Christ.

In 2:4 Peter says that Christ is precious to God. It is through Christ that God has reconciled man to himself. As the imperial power fades, God is building a kingdom. Things in this world collapse. We are part of a lasting kingdom and important members. In 2:7 Peter reminds us that Christ is precious to those who believe. To some he is worthless. They do not find Him fit to build anything in their lives. But to those who believe He is worth more than anything the world can offer. As we get to know Him, He is more and more precious to us.

NFL Great Tony Dungy Applauds Ben Watson for Calling Abortion 'Ultimate Form of Racism'

National Football League hall-of-famer Tony Dungy has "applauded" Baltimore Ravens tight end Benjamin Watson, an outspoken Christian, for his widely read comments opposing abortion and Planned Parenthood.

"I applaud my brother @BenjaminSWatson for speaking the truth on a controversial issue. Thank you," Dungy's tweet reads.

Dungy was responding to a tweet posted by pro-life activist group Live Action, which published an article summarizing comments that Watson made last summer in an interview with the pro-life Turning Point Pregnancy Resource center.

In the interview, Watson did not hold back in communicating what he thinks of Planned Parenthood, the nation's largest abortion provider which kills over 300,000 unborn babies each year.

In the interview, Watson went into great detail about how race plays a role when it comes to the issue of abortion and pointed out that Planned Parenthood was founded by Margaret Sanger, who is often accused of being a racist and eugenicist.

DC's Museum of the Bible

Museum of the Bible, the 430,000-square-foot museum opening on Nov. 17 just three blocks from the U.S. Capitol, announced today it will not charge a fee for general admission. Similar to the admission policies of other museums, such as the Metropolitan Museum of Art and the American Museum of Natural History, Museum of the Bible will instead suggest a $15 donation, with guests under no obligation to pay anything. Museum of the Bible will also offer guests the ability to reserve timed-entry tickets.

"Our mission is to invite all people to engage with the Bible," said Museum of the Bible President Cary Summers. "We can think of no more fundamental way to give people access to the treasures and experiences inside this museum than to offer public admission coupled with the ability to reserve timed-entry tickets."

The museum will comprise eight floors, including expansive exhibit and gallery space, visiting libraries and temporary exhibit space, a restaurant and biblical garden, a performing arts theater, a grand ballroom, and event space. In total, the museum's immense amount of content could take the average person many days to view.

Museum of the Bible has been recognized by CNN as one of the most anticipated and beautifully designed museums opening in 2017; by Smithsonian.com as one of the "must-see" museums opening this year; and by Forbes as one of the top 100 nonprofits in the U.S. Other national media attention around the opening of the museum has come from Time, The Washington Post, The New York Times, Fox News and many other media organizations.

Sponsored by the Christian Courier Newspaper/ProBuColls Association in conjunction with CBMC

The Midwest Men's Retreat for many years was sponsored by CBMC (Christian Business Men's Committee) and in later years by ProBuColls Association of Milwaukee. Having started 70 years ago at Camp Awana, it then moved to Green Lake Conference Center and then to Lake Geneva, and now back to Green Lake. It was a rough start at Camp Awana. Cabins had bunk beds, outdoor plumbing, no heat, no insulation, and some very chilly weekends. The move to Green Lake was a 100% improvement, and it got better with each move. Now Green Lake Conference Center is going through a very large remodeling project that will be great for this year and many retreats to come.

REGISTER EARLY is the key word! When the hotel - Roger Williams Inn - is filled, others will be housed in one of the nearby buildings recently built on the grounds. All very nice, clean, and spacious rooms.

Pastors Launch Christian Alternative to Facebook

A new social media platform has been started by Christians who were banned from Facebook.

According to The Christian Post, the new Christian alternative to Facebook is called SocialCross.org. It was started by a group of pastors who were suspended multiple times from Facebook for posting unpopular thoughts and opinions on LGBT issues.

The pastors hope that the new social networking platform will be a place for Christians to freely express their beliefs and engage in conversations without fearing backlash.

SocialCross launched three weeks ago, and has thus far gained 2,300 users.

"This is a place where we can all come together as people who believe in Christ who want to share with one another and learn from each other and do so without an environment of fear of having people report our post or Facebook blocking us for 30 days," said the website's co-founder, Rich Penkoski, a West Virginia-based preacher and co-founder of the online ministry Warriors for Christ.

Penkoski was spurred on to create SocialCross after his Facebook account was banned for 30 days on multiple occasions. Once, it was banned because Penkoski said he would ban anyone who posted the rainbow flag emoji on his ministry's Facebook page.

"The whole idea is that it's a Christian site, run by Christians, designed by Christians and based on biblical principles," Penkoski explained. "But anybody and their brother can join so long as they understand that we are a Christian site run by Christians."

He added that "LGBT members are welcome so long as they are not going to try to cram that garbage down our throats. If you want to come and ask honest questions and have honest dialogue, you are more than welcome. But if the goal is to comment and force their lifestyle on others, that is not going to be allowed."

The Genius of One by Greg Holder

In a fractured and on-edge world, there are some who are called to unity. Unity is not always easy or intuitive. It is simply a better way. It shows God still gets things done on this earth. It traces back to the prayer Jesus prayed on the worst night of his life: that we "would be one." In THE GENIUS OF ONE, author and pastor Greg Holder takes his readers on a journey from that glorious prayer of Jesus, past the debates and divisions that isolate Christians, and into the reality of a church united under God for the sake of the world. For those who cling to the hope that God is still at work, this book will both stir a deeper longing for unity and provide practical steps toward that path. Nav Press $15.99

Giving It All Away (and getting it all back again) by David Green with Bill High

The life of giving is a life of adventure and risk. But it pays the best rewards for you, your family, and all you touch. David Green founder of Hobby Lobby, says true wealth is based on faith, strong family and generous living. This is his story and more. It is his best advice in print. In it he shares principles that have guided him in growing a business from scratch, weathering a Supreme Court case, raising a loving family and leaving them a lasting legacy. The decisions you make today build the legacy you will leave behind. Now is the time.

"Because of his faith and generosity, David Green has changed the world. His love and friendship have changed our ministry. His story will change your walk with God." DR. DAVID JEREMIAH, founder and president, Turning Point Ministries

"If you want to be smart, you find out what smart people do and imitate that. And I've known David Green long enough to understand that he is worth imitating. His business wisdom is surpassed only by his integrity and faith. This book reflects David at his very best." DAVID RAMSEY, bestselling author and nationally syndicated radio show host.

"By any measure, David Green is a successful businessman. But much more important, David is a faithful man and a generous man, because he sees life with an eternal perspective. He understands that God entrusts us with his resources to do his work here on earth, for the purposes of heaven. This is an inspiring and challenging book that has the potential to change the way you look at everything you do." JIM DALY, president, Focus on the Family $19.99 Zondervan Publishing

Shall I give you yet another reason why you should pray? I have preached my very heart out. I could not say any more than I have said. Will not your prayers accomplish that which my preaching fails to do? Is it not likely that the Church has been putting forth its preaching hand but not its praying hand? Oh dear friends! Let us agonize in prayer. ~ Charles Spurgeon

BILLY GRAHAM RAPID RESPONSE TEAM CHAPLAINS IN SOUTHEASTERN WISCONSIN, COMFORTING RESIDENTS AFTER HISTORIC FLOODING

Crisis-trained chaplains with the Billy Graham Rapid Response Team deployed to Wisconsin following devastating flooding in the southeastern part of the state. Several inches of rain fell across the region, swelling rivers, flooding homes, and forcing the counties of Racine, Kenosha and Walworth to declare states of emergency.

"As the floodwaters rose, so did the levels of despair and hopelessness in the hearts of many families in the area," said Jack Munday, international director of the Billy Graham Rapid Response Team.

The Billy Graham Rapid Response Team is deploying in coordination with Samaritan's Purse, the Christian disaster relief organization also headed by Franklin Graham. Together the two ministries will address the physical, emotional and spiritual needs of those who have been affected.

FORMER OF MICE & MEN FRONTMAN LOSES FOLLOWERS AFTER TALKING ABOUT JESUS

Austin Carlile, the singer who was formerly with heavy metal band Of Mice & Men, says he lost fans when he began talking about God.

Carlile, 29, was diagnosed with Marfan Syndrome, a connective tissue disorder that sidelined him from touring with the group. While he deals with rigorous treatments, he does so glorifying God and leaning on his faith.

However, a recent tweet revealed that everyone is not always accepting of Carlile being vocal about his faith walk.

"I LOSE followers any time I speak about God or His son Jesus, ppl don't wanna hear it. What I GAIN from knowing Him though... irreplaceable," Carlile tweeted Monday. "It may not be 'cool' to believe, it may not be popular, but the GOD of the entire universe loves you. Realizing this changed my entire life."

"Relying on my own perseverance and strength was not enough. His grace has been overwhelming, and with every obstacle I've faced I'm proud to say my hope through HIM is what has pushed me to continue on, and to keep fighting."

9TH CIRCUIT COURT RULING HAS NO IMPACT ON VIDANGEL'S NEW SYSTEM

VidAngel, the market-leading entertainment platform empowering users to filter language, nudity, violence, and other content from movies and TV series on Netflix, Amazon Prime, and HBO-using modern streaming platforms such as iOS, Android, and Roku-has been engaged in a high-profile legal battle with Disney, Warner Bros., 20th Century Fox, and Lucasfilm for more than a year. These Hollywood studios are engaged in a legal effort to render the 2005 Family Movie Act useless in the 21st century, preventing VidAngel and other services from lawfully empowering parents and families to filter content on modern devices in their homes. VidAngel has responded by engaging in a robust, crowd-funded legal defense in which the company is prepared to take its case all the way to the Supreme Court.

Hyeon Soo Lim, 62, was imprisoned by Pyongyang in January 2015 for carrying out "subversive activities."

Lim, who pastors the Toronto-area Light Korean Presbyterian Church, one of the largest churches in Canada, finally returned home, with his captors citing clemency on medical grounds.

HERE'S WHY PARENTS SHOULD SUBSCRIBE TO FAMILY-FRIENDLY 'CHRISTIAN NETFLIX', ACCORDING TO PURE FLIX DIGITAL CEO

Greg Gudorf believes movies and TV shows don't need to be riddled with sex, violence, and inappropriate language to be entertaining. In fact, they can even be inspirational.

He's so passionate about this belief, that after leaving his 30-year-career in the technology field, he took on the role of CEO of Pure Flix Digital, building a streaming video-on-demand service focused on faith and family programming.

"When I was in technology, the comments I heard were, 'wow, you made the battery last longer, nice job!' What I heard from Pure Flix customers was, 'Finally, I can watch TV with my kids without having to have my hand on the mute button,'" Gudorf told The Gospel Herald in a phone interview.

GRACE BIBLE ACADEMY

Mentoring & Ministering through

Grace Bible Institute
Grace Bible Academy
Church Ministries

Pastor & Mrs. Harry (Ann) Viernes

We started GBA in 1982. That's 35 years of making a difference in the lives of, not only children academically, but whole families spiritually. Because the location of our school to Asia Pacific Theological Seminary in Baguio City, we have students attending GBA from many different countries. It has enriched our school because we have all learned to deal with cross-cultural situations teaching both staff and students how to be sensitive to people from different cultures and also we have an opportunity to share the message of salvation with people who are not Christians and nurture them spiritually.

Last year we had students from Korea, Japan, Kenya, New Guinea, mainland China, Mayan mar, America and, of course, Philippines. During graduation, our speaker was asking if the academy is an international school because of all the different students represented. We could say it is but the Department of Education issued a memorandum which forbid all private schools from calling their school international. Nevertheless, God has given us many opportunities to teach and work with many different nationalities through our school.

Please pray for GBA as we are still facing much pressure from the Government. They want to revoke our recognition and drop us back down to permit status. That means we would have to start all over again, pay lots of money each year and go through lots of problems with them. (Because they are always changing positions.)

'EXTRAORDINARY' ACTRESS SAYS 'MARRIAGE IS A MINISTRY,' COUPLES MUST SERVE IT WELL

Shari Rigby, lead actress of the feature film "Extraordinary," says married couples should be the best examples of long term commitment, describing marriage as a ministry to one another.

For the first time in cinematic history, a film made by a university students will be released in theaters nationwide. For one night only on Sept 7, Fathom events will showcase "Extraordinary." The movie was created by the department of Cinematic Arts at Liberty University and is based on the real-life events of marathon runner David Horton.

According to the film's synopsis, "Extraordinary" tells the story of "ultra-marathon runner and college professor David Horton, his wife, Nancy, and their attempt to finish their marriage race well. Although proud of his incredible athletic accomplishments and the impact he has on his students, David's family continuously pays a high price for his years of competitive running. Following his open-heart surgery and irreparable damage to his knees, Nancy is ready for Dave to hang up his racing shoes for good and focus his boundless energy on their family. Instead, feeling called by God to 'inspire people one last time,' Dave sets off for a 2,900-mile race across America."

"Extraordinary" stars Shari Rigby ("October Baby"), Kirk Cameron ("Fireproof"), and Karen Abercrombie ("War Room"), among others. The faith-based film will tackle the importance of family with a strong emphasis on marriage.

"Marriage is tough but it is one of the most beautiful gifts that one can receive in his or her life," Rigby told The Christian Post when asked about the importance of marriage. "The definition of perseverance is, 'steadfastness in doing something despite difficulty or delay in achieving success.'"

Rigby has been married for 20 years and explained that she views marriage as a sacred service to God and her spouse.

"Marriage is a ministry and we must continue to finish our course and ministry well. By running the marriage race, we show the unbelieving world we are not quitters but doers with persistence, tenacity, determination, and staying power, while encouraging the believers with transparency and hope for successful marriages that can and will last a lifetime," she said.

Don't Forget to Smile

A little girl walked to and from school daily. Though the weather that morning was questionable and clouds were forming, she made her daily trek to the elementary school. As the afternoon progressed, the winds whipped up, along with thunder and lightning. The mother of the little girl felt concerned that her daughter would be frightened as she walked home from school and she herself feared that the electrical storm might harm her child.

Following the roar of thunder, lightning, like a flaming sword, would cut through the sky. Full of concern, the mother quickly got into her car and drove along the route to her child's school. As she did so, she saw her little girl walking along, but at each flash of lightning, the child would stop, look up and smile. Another and another were to follow quickly and with each the little girl would look at the streak of light and smile.

When the mother's car drove up beside the child she lowered the window and called to her.

"What are you doing? Why do you keep stopping?"

The child answered, "I am trying to look pretty, God keeps taking my picture."

May God bless you today as you face the storms that come your way.

Trump Administration Expands International Pro-Life Policy

One of President Donald Trump's first official actions in January was to put back into effect the Mexico City Policy. That rule, first instituted by President Ronald Reagan, is intended to block U.S. taxpayer money from aiding family planning programs abroad run by non-governmental organizations (NGOs) that perform or promote abortion. In his executive order, President Trump also directed the Secretary of State to determine how to extend that policy to "global health assistance furnished by all departments or agencies."

In compliance with the President's directive, the State Department announced a "Protecting Life in Global Health Assistance" plan applying the Mexico City Policy's pro-life requirement to a much broader set of "global health assistance" funding, including U.S. programs to address HIV/AIDS, maternal and child health, malaria, global health security, and reproductive health.

While the previous policy, which had been rescinded during the Obama and Clinton administrations, governed a pool of about half a billion dollars, the Trump administration's new rule will now safeguard nearly nine billion dollars.

In a Daily Signal column, Rep. Chris Smith (R-N.J.), a champion for human life and human dignity who chairs the Global Health Subcommittee of the House Foreign Affairs Committee, said:

For years, pro-abortion organizations have used U.S. taxpayer funds to weaken, undermine, or reverse pro-life laws in other nations and systematically destroy the precious lives of unborn children. Scores of countries throughout the world have been besieged by aggressive and well-funded campaigns to overturn their pro-life laws and policies. The Protecting Life in Global Health Assistance policy will significantly mitigate U.S. taxpayer complicity in global abortion.

Significantly, the new rule does not reduce the amount of funding designated for global health programs. Rather, it simply ensures abortion activists are not subsidized by those American taxpayer dollars.

D. James Kennedy Ministries Files Defamation Suit against Southern Poverty Law Center

D. James Kennedy Ministries (DJKM) filed suit in the United States District Court against the Southern Poverty Law Center (SPLC) on Wednesday – just days after CNN put the spotlight on a controversial, discredited report by the organization that puts the "hate group" label on many conservative Christian organizations that are not hate groups.

"We embarked today on a journey to right a terrible wrong," said Dr. Frank Wright, DJKM's President & Chief Executive Officer, in announcing the filed suit. "Those who knowingly label Christian ministries as 'hate' groups, solely for subscribing to the historic Christian faith, are either woefully uninformed or willfully deceitful. In the case of the Southern Poverty Law Center, our lawsuit alleges the latter."

The DJKM lawsuit alleges, among other things, that the SPLC illegally trafficked in false and misleading descriptions of the services offered by DJKM and committed defamation against DJKM arising from the publication and distribution of false information that libels the ministry's reputation and subjects the ministry to disgrace, ridicule, odium, and contempt in the estimation of the public.

On August 18, CNN published SPLC's list of "hate groups," displaying the location of each on a map. While CNN indicated within the article that the data on "hate groups" is from the SPLC, the original headline on the story did not note the source. That headline was later changed to cite SPLC. The story was also updated to provide direct links to the full list from the SPLC as opposed to publishing the entire list, and context was added regarding some groups who oppose their inclusion on the SPLC list, including the American Family Association, which shot back at CNN for its lack of journalistic integrity.

"CNN's citing of the SPLC underscores why many Americans don't trust CNN for honest reporting," said AFA President Tim Wildmon in a statement. "The Southern Poverty Law Center has been widely discredited over the years because of its false labeling of Christian organizations as 'hate groups.' In fact, the Obama administration's Department of Justice quietly reprimanded SPLC and its attorneys because their conduct 'overstepped the bounds of zealous advocacy and was unprofessional.' CNN has further proven to be an illegitimate news source that lacks journalistic integrity."

In his statement Wednesday, Wright said, SPLC's "false and illegal characterizations have a chilling effect on the free exercise of religion and on religious free speech for all people of faith."

"After having given the SPLC an opportunity to retract, we have undertaken this legal action, seeking a trial by a jury of our peers, to preserve our own rights under the law and to defend the religious free speech rights of all Americans," he concluded.

In related news, late last month, Senator James Lankford (R-Okla.) called out ABC News for irresponsibly parroting SPLC's "hate group" label when identifying Alliance Defending Freedom (ADF). Reporting on a speaking engagement of U.S. Attorney General Jeff Sessions, ABC called ADF an "anti-LGBT hate group" in its headline and article text. The article also linked to SPLC's page attacking ADF.

In a letter to ABC President James Goldston, Lankford rebuked the network and defended ADF as "peaceful" and "reputable."

D. JAMES
MINISTRIES

"I found it odd that ABC would designate ADF as a hate group not based on any actual crime or action, but apparently based on their belief in religious liberty or traditional marriage," he stated.

Similar criticism was levied against an NBC affiliate in Arizona for its story, "What are Arizona's hate groups?" which relied entirely on SPLC's accusations.

"12 News, an NBC affiliate, and The Arizona Republic have committed journalistic malpractice," said ADF Legal Counsel and Director of Communications Kerri Kupec in a statement, noting also the publishing of SPLC's list by Arizona's largest daily newspaper, which is part of the USA Today Network.

"SPLC spends its time and money attacking veterans, nuns, Muslims who oppose terrorism, Catholics, Evangelicals, and anyone else who dares disagree with its far-left ideology. Meanwhile, ADF works every day to peacefully preserve and affirm free speech and the free exercise of religion for people from all walks of life and all backgrounds, because we believe freedom is for everyone," she added.

ADF has called on 12 News, The Arizona Republic, and ABC to issue an apology to them and retract their defamatory stories.

In his letter to ABC, Sen. Lankford emphasized the responsibility of those with powerful voices in the public square to take care in the words they use. Lankford said that "disagreement is not the same as discrimination and it's not the same as hate." He warned, "Labeling ADF a 'hate group' feeds into a narrative that the news media frequently editorializes beyond the facts. This ultimately harms American trust in the press."
