“You never stop learning. No matter what level you are on, when you’re working with people, seize the opportunities God has given you.” — Coach Tom Meyer

Over the past 20 years, along with a team of people, Tom and his wife, Glenda, have hosted 60 plus international students on Friday nights for dinner at their home in Milwaukee near UWM.

“On behalf of Wisconsinites everywhere, I hope this message finds you and your loved ones safe and healthy.”

Wisconsin Governor Tony Evers, Badger Bounceback 2/16/21

“Prayer is a vital key to determining the state of our country’s future.”

2 Chronicles 7:13-14 (KJV)

<sup>13</sup> If I shut up heaven that there be no rain, or if I command the locusts to devour the land, or if I send pestilence among my people;

<sup>14</sup> If my people, which are called by my name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land.

A free copy of the New Testament, sponsored by Bibles on the Move, will be given to each person in attendance.

Historically, the leadership of our nation has turned to God for strength and guidance. It is in this spiritual tradition that we hold the Governor’s Prayer Breakfast. Participants are laypeople representing the leadership of our community. In a busy and troubled world, attendance at this inspiring prayer breakfast demonstrates our dedication to God and our faith in His plan and purpose for each one of us.

Over the years, the National Prayer Breakfast in the nation’s capital has proved a continuing influence throughout the world by recognizing publicly the privileges and responsibilities of a nation under God. Because of the impact of the National Prayer Breakfast throughout America, many of our cities are making it possible for the leadership on the local level to get together to develop the cause of a spiritual awakening throughout our nation.

In keeping with the foregoing ideals, the Christian Courier newspaper, with the cooperation of other interested community leaders, sponsors this Governor’s Prayer Breakfast.

“Let not mercy and truth forsake you.
 Bind them around your neck,
 Write them on the tablet of your heart,
 And so find favor and high esteem
 In the sight of God and man.
 Trust in the Lord with all your heart,
 And lean not on your own understanding.
 In all your ways acknowledge Him,
 And He shall direct your paths.”
 – King Solomon, Proverbs 3:3-6

“I hold the precepts of Jesus, as delivered by Himself, to be the most pure, benevolent, and sublime which have ever been preached to man.”
 – Thomas Jefferson

“But all of us – at home, at war, wherever we may be – are within reach of God’s love and power. We all can pray. We all should pray. We should ask the fulfillment of God’s will. We should ask for courage, wisdom, for the quietness of soul which comes alone to them who place their lives in His hands.”

– Harry S Truman
